Corporation for
NATIONAL & COMMUNITY SERVICE ★★★★

THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Meeting community needs in the District of Columbia. More than 13,000 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to solve problems and strengthen communities through 92 national service projects across the District of Columbia. Serving with national and community nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, schools, and local agencies, these citizens tutor and mentor children, coordinate after-school programs, build homes, conduct neighborhood patrols, organize local homeland security efforts, respond to disasters, and recruit and manage volunteers. This year, the Corporation for National and Community Service will provide more than $10,500,000 to support the District of Columbia neighborhoods through three major programs:

Senior Corps: More than 900 seniors in the District of Columbia contribute their time and talents in one of three programs: Foster Grandparents, who serve one-on-one with more than 600 young people who have special needs; Senior Companions, who help more than 200 other seniors live independently in their homes; and RSVP volunteers, who work with more than 100 local groups to meet a wide range of community needs.

AmeriCorps: This year, more than 700 individuals are serving in the District of Columbia communities as AmeriCorps members. In return, the members receive an education award of up to $4,725 to help pay for college or pay back student loans. To date, more than 800 District of Columbia residents have qualified for education awards totaling more than $3,700,000. Two-thirds of AmeriCorps grants are made by the District of Columbia Commission on National & Community Service. National nonprofits, such as Public Allies and Habitat for Humanity, make other assignments. Other members serve in AmeriCorps*VISTA, and AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).

Learn and Serve America: Learn and Serve America provides schools, colleges, and community organizations with grants for service-learning that help make it possible for more than 12,000 District of Columbia students from kindergarten through college to meet community needs while improving their civic and academic skills and learning the habits of good citizenship.
